Statement on committee procedures

In view of its exclusive competence for implementation of the budget, as specified in Article 205 of the Treaty, the Commission reiterates its preferences for the advisory committee procedure in this area.

The Council and the Commission will ensure that the operating arrangements and meetings scheduled for these committees are such as to facilitate smooth and speedy implementation of the budget.

The Council recalls the undertaking it gave on 3 February 1992 in the Conciliation Committee to resume discussion on the question of committee procedures once the Treaty on European Union has come into force.
