

Rules of Procedure of the Committee of the Regions (18 November 1999)

Caption: Rules of procedure of the Committee of the Regions adopted on 18 November 1999.

Source: Official Journal of the European Communities (OJEC). 22.01.2000, No L 18. [s.l.]. ISSN 0378-6978.

Copyright: All rights of reproduction, public communication, adaptation, distribution or dissemination via Internet, internal network or any other means are strictly reserved in all countries.

The documents available on this Web site are the exclusive property of their authors or right holders.

Requests for authorisation are to be addressed to the authors or right holders concerned.

Further information may be obtained by referring to the legal notice and the terms and conditions of use regarding this site.

URL: http://www.cvce.eu/obj/rules_of_procedure_of_the_committee_of_the_regions_18_november_1999-en-c837eb05-8196-4d96-988f-a6faa1bed8ee.html

Publication date: 22/10/2012

Rules of Procedure of the Committee of the Regions of 18 November 1999

Contents

Introduction

Preliminary comment

Title I — Members and constituent bodies of the Committee

Chapter 1 — Constituent bodies

Rule 1 — Constituent bodies of the Committee

Chapter 2 — Members of the Committee

Rule 2 — Status of members and alternates

Rule 3 — Term of office

Rule 4 — Privileges and immunities

Rule 5 — Attention of alternates

Rule 6 — Delegation of vote

Rule 7 — National delegations and political groups

Rule 8 — National delegations

Rule 9 — Political groups and non-attached members

Rule 10 — Interregional groups

Title II — Organisation and procedure of the Committee

Chapter 1 — Initial convening and installation of the Committee

Rule 11 — Convening the first meeting

Rule 12 — Installation in office of the Committee and verification of credentials

Chapter 2 — Plenary Assembly

Rule 13 — Tasks of the plenary assembly

Rule 14 — Convening the plenary assembly

Rule 15 — Agenda for the plenary session

Rule 16 — Opening of the plenary session

Rule 17 — Admission of the public, guests and guest speakers

Rule 18 — Speaking time

Rule 19 — List of speakers

Rule 20 — Points of order

Rule 21 — Quorum

Rule 22 — Voting

Rule 23 — Tabling of amendments

Rule 24 — Procedure for dealing with amendments

Rule 25 — Urgent opinions

Rule 26 — Simplified procedures

Rule 27 — Closing of the plenary session

Chapter 3 — The Bureau and the President

Rule 28 — Composition of the Bureau

Rule 29 — Replacements at Bureau meetings

Rule 30 — Election rules

Rule 31 — Election of the President and the first Vice-President

Rule 32 — Election of the 14 Vice-Presidents, the other Bureau members and the chairmen of the political groups as members of the Bureau

Rule 33 — Election of replacements

Rule 34 — Vacant Bureau seats

Rule 35 — Tasks of the Bureau

Rule 36 — Convening of the Bureau/Quorum

Rule 37 — The President

Opinions and resolutions — Procedure in Bureau

Rule 38 — Opinions — Legal bases

Rule 39 — Opinions — Designation of commission

Rule 40 — Appointment of a rapporteur-general

Rule 41 — Own-initiate opinions

Rule 42 — Tabling of resolutions

Rule 43 — Promotion of opinions and resolutions

Chapter 4 — Commissions

Rule 44 — Composition and powers

Rule 45 — Chairman and vice-chairmen

Rule 46 — Tasks of commissions

Rule 47 — Convening of commissions and their agendas

Rule 48 — Admission of the public

Rule 49 — Public hearings

Rule 50 — Time limits for drawing up opinions

Rule 51 — Layout of opinions

Rule 52 — Rapporteurs

Rule 53 — Working parties

Rule 54 — Experts

Rule 55 — Quorum

Rule 56 — Voting

Rule 57 — Amendments

Rule 58 — Decision not to draw up an opinion

Chapter 5 — Administration of the CommitteeRule 59 — Secretariat-General

Rule 60 — Secretary-General

Rule 61 — Engagement of the Secretary-General

Rule 62 — Staff Regulations of officials and conditions of employment of other servants

Rule 63 — Budget

Title III — General provisions

Chapter 1 — Cooperation with other EU bodies

Rule 64 — Cooperation agreements with other EU bodies

Rule 65 — Forwarding and publication of opinions and resolutions

Chapter 2 — Rules of Procedure

Rule 66 — Revision of Rules of Procedure

Rule 67 — Bureau instructions

Rule 68 — Entry into force of Rules of Procedure

Introduction

The Committee of the Regions has adopted the following Rules of Procedure on the basis of Article 264(2) of the Treaty establishing the European Community (EC Treaty) (Decision of 18 November 1999).

Preliminary comment

The terms used in these Rules of Procedure for the various offices are not gender-specific.

Title I

Members and constituent bodies of the Committee

Chapter 1

Constituent bodies

Rule 1

Constituent bodies of the Committee

The constituent bodies of the Committee shall be the plenary assembly, the President, the Bureau and the commissions.

Chapter 2

Members of the Committee

Rule 2

Status of members and alternates

The members and alternates shall be representatives of regional and local bodies pursuant to Article 263 of the EC Treaty. They may not be bound by any mandatory instructions and shall be completely independent in the performance of their duties, in the general interest of the Community.

Rule 3

Term of office

1. The four-year term of office of a member or alternate shall commence on the date on which his formal appointment by the Council takes effect.
2. The term of office of a member or alternate shall be terminated by resignation or death. A successor shall be appointed by the Council for the remainder of the term.
3. Any resignation must be in writing, signed by the resigning member or alternate and sent to the President of the Committee. The President shall inform the Council, which shall confirm the vacancy and implement the replacement procedure.

Rule 4

Privileges and immunities

Members and their duly mandated alternates shall enjoy privileges and immunities in accordance with the Protocol on the privileges and immunities of the European Communities, annexed to the Treaty of 8 April 1965 establishing a single Council and a single Commission of the European Communities.

Rule 5

Attendance of alternates

1. Any member prevented from attending a plenary session may be represented by an alternate from his national delegation.
2. Any member prevented from attending a commission meeting, a working party meeting or any other meeting which has been approved by the Bureau may be represented by another member or an alternate from his national delegation.
3. An alternate or a member acting as an alternate can stand in for one member only. They shall exercise the same powers as a member at the relevant meeting. The Secretary-General must be notified in writing of the delegation of vote before the relevant meeting.
4. The appointment of alternates for a plenary session shall be limited to individual days. At a plenary session the expenses of only the member or the alternate shall be reimbursed. The detailed provisions shall be laid down by the Bureau in the implementing arrangements regarding travel and subsistence expenses.
5. An alternate who has been appointed rapporteur may present the draft opinion for which he is responsible at the plenary session at which the draft opinion is on the agenda. This shall apply even if the member whom he has been designated to replace is also at the meeting. The member may delegate his vote to his alternate while the draft opinion in question is being discussed. The Secretary-General must be notified in writing of the delegation of vote before the relevant meeting.

Rule 6

Delegation of vote

Except as provided for in Rules 5 and 29, the right to vote may not be delegated.

Rule 7

National delegations and political groups

National delegations and political groups shall help in a balanced way with the organisation of the Committee's work.

Rule 8

National delegations

1. The members and alternates from each Member State shall form a national delegation. Each national delegation shall adopt its own internal rules and shall elect a chairman. The Committee President shall be officially informed of the name of the person elected.
2. The Secretary-General shall make arrangements, within the Committee's administration, for national delegations to receive assistance. These arrangements shall also permit each individual member to receive information and assistance in his official language. The arrangements shall form part of a specific service consisting of Committee of the Regions officials or other servants and shall ensure that national delegations can make appropriate use of the Committee's facilities. Specifically, the Secretary-General shall provide the national delegations with suitable means for holding meetings immediately before or during plenary sessions.

Rule 9Political groups and non-attached members

1. Members and alternates may form groups which reflect their political affinities. The criteria for membership shall be laid down in the internal rules of each political group.
2. At least 20 members/alternates from no fewer than two Member States, 18 members/alternates from no fewer than three Member States or 16 members/alternates from no fewer than four Member States — half of whom at least, in all cases, must be members — shall be needed to form a political group. A member/alternate may belong to only one political group. A political group shall be dissolved if its membership falls below the required number.
3. The Committee President shall be notified in a statement when a political group is set up, dissolved or otherwise changed. The statement notifying the formation of a political group shall specify the name of the political group, its members and its bureau. Notification of the formation (including name, bureau and number of members) and dissolution of a political group shall be published by the President in the Official Journal of the European Communities.
4. Each political group shall be assisted by a secretariat staffed by Secretariat-General personnel. The political groups may submit proposals to the appointing authority for the selection, appointment and promotion of such staff and for extending their contracts. The appointing authority shall make its decision after consulting the chairmen of the political groups.
5. The Secretary-General shall provide the political groups and their constituent bodies with adequate resources for meetings, activities and publications and for the work of their secretariats. The resources for each political group shall be earmarked in the budget. The political groups and their secretariats may make appropriate use of the Committee's facilities.
6. The political groups and their bureaux may meet immediately before or during plenary sessions. They may hold extraordinary meetings twice a year. An alternate attending these meetings is only entitled to travel and subsistence expenses if he is representing a member from his political group.
7. Non-attached members shall be provided with administrative support. The detailed arrangements shall be laid down by the Bureau on a proposal from the Secretary-General.

Rule 10Interregional groups

Members and alternates may form interregional groups. They shall inform the Committee President thereof.

Title IIOrganisation and procedure of the Committee*Chapter 1*Initial convening and installation in office of the Committee*Rule 11*Convening the first meeting

The Committee shall be convened, after each four-yearly renewal, by the oldest member and shall meet not later than one month after the appointment of its members by the Council. The first meeting shall be chaired by the oldest member present (interim president) assisted by the four youngest members present and the Secretary-General of the Committee, who together shall constitute the interim bureau.

Rule 12

Installation in office of the Committee and verification of credentials

1. At the first meeting, the interim president shall inform the Committee of the communication from the Council concerning the appointment of its members. If requested, the interim president may decide to verify the appointment and credentials of members, after which he shall declare the Committee installed in office for the new term.
2. The interim bureau shall remain in office until the results of the elections of the President, the first Vice-President and the remaining members of the Bureau have been declared.

Chapter 2 Plenary assembly

Rule 13 Tasks of the plenary assembly

The Committee shall meet as a plenary assembly. Its main tasks shall be:

- a) to adopt opinions, reports and resolutions;
- b) to adopt the draft estimates of expenditure and revenue of the Committee;
- c) to elect the President, the first Vice-President and the remaining members of the Bureau;
- d) to set up commissions;
- e) to adopt and revise the Rules of Procedure of the Committee.

Rule 14 Convening the plenary assembly

1. The President of the Committee shall convene the plenary assembly at least once every three months. The dates of the plenary sessions are to be fixed by the Bureau during the third quarter of the previous year. A plenary session can meet on one or more days.
2. At the written request of at least one quarter of the members, the President shall be obliged to convene an extraordinary plenary session, which shall take place not sooner than one week and not later than one month after the date of the request. The written request shall state the subject matter which is to be discussed at the extraordinary plenary session. No other matter may be dealt with.

Rule 15 Agenda for the plenary session

1. The preliminary draft agenda containing a provisional list of the draft opinions and resolutions to be discussed at the next but one plenary session together with all the other documents requiring a decision shall be prepared by the Bureau.
2. The draft agenda accompanied by all the documents requiring a decision listed therein shall be sent by the President to the members and alternates in their official language at least four weeks before the opening of the plenary session.
3. The draft opinions and resolutions shall in principle be put on the agenda in the order in which they were adopted by the commissions or submitted in accordance with the Rules of Procedure. Account shall also be taken of agenda items which deal with related subject matter.

4. In exceptional and duly motivated cases where the deadline referred to in paragraph 2 cannot be met, the President may decide to include a document requiring a decision on the draft agenda provided the relevant document has been received by the members and alternates in their official language not later than one week before the opening of the plenary session.

5. Written amendments to the draft agenda must be submitted to the Secretary-General not later than three working days before the opening of the plenary session.

6. The Bureau shall finalise the draft agenda at its meeting immediately prior to the opening of the plenary session. At this meeting the Bureau may decide, by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast, to include on the agenda matters of an urgent or topical nature whose discussion cannot be deferred until the next plenary session.

Rule 16

Opening of the plenary session

The President shall open the plenary session and call for the adoption of the final draft agenda.

Rule 17

Admission of the public, guests and guest speakers

1. Plenary sessions shall be open to the public, unless the plenary assembly decides otherwise in respect of the whole meeting or a specific item on the agenda.

2. Representatives of the European Parliament, Council and Commission may attend plenary sessions. They may be asked to take the floor.

3. The President may also invite other distinguished guests to address the plenary assembly. A general debate may follow, during which the general rules on speaking time shall apply.

Rule 18

Speaking time

1. The plenary assembly shall, at the beginning of its meeting and acting on a proposal from the Bureau, allocate speaking time for every item on the agenda. During a plenary session the President, acting on his own initiative or at the request of a member, shall arrange for a decision to be taken to limit speaking time.

2. The President, acting on a proposal from the Bureau, may propose to the plenary Assembly that when debates are held on general or specific issues, speaking time should be divided among the political groups and national delegations.

3. As a general rule, speaking time shall be limited to two minutes for comments on minutes, for points of order and for comments on amendments to the final draft agenda or the agenda.

4. If a speaker exceeds his allotted speaking time, the President may, after an initial call to order, forbid him to speak.

5. Any request by a member that the debate be brought to a close shall be put to the vote by the President.

Rule 19

List of speakers

1. The names of members who ask to speak shall be entered in a list in the order in which their requests are received. The President shall call upon members to speak on the basis of this list, ensuring as far as possible that speakers of different political views and from different national delegations are heard in turn.

2. Priority, may be given, however, to the rapporteur of the commission concerned, to the chairmen of political groups and national delegations wishing to speak on behalf of their group or delegation, or to speakers deputising for them.

3. No one may take the floor more than twice on the same subject, except by leave of the President. The chairman and the rapporteur of the commission concerned shall, however, be allowed to speak at their request for a period to be decided by the President.

Rule 20

Points of order

1. A member shall be allowed to speak to raise a point of order or to draw the attention of the President to any failure to respect the Rules of Procedure. The point of order must concern the agenda or the subject under discussion.

2. A request to raise a point of order shall take precedence over all other requests to speak.

3. The President shall take an immediate decision on points of order in accordance with the Rules of Procedure and shall announce his ruling immediately after the point of order has been raised. No vote shall be taken on the President's ruling.

Rule 21

Quorum

1. A quorum shall exist at a plenary session if a majority of the members is present. The quorum shall be verified only during the meeting and only if at least 10 members so request. If the verification of a quorum is not requested, all votes shall be valid regardless of the number of voters. The President may interrupt the plenary session for up to 10 minutes before proceeding with a verification of the quorum. Members who have requested verification of the quorum but are no longer present in the plenary session chamber shall be considered to be present for the purposes of the count. If fewer than ten members are present, the President may rule that there is no quorum.

2. If it is established that there is no quorum, all items on the agenda which require voting shall be postponed until the following meeting day, when the plenary Assembly may hold a valid vote on these items whatever the number of members present.

3. All members and alternates taking part in the meeting and other persons present shall sign an attendance list.

Rule 22

Voting

1. The plenary assembly shall decide by a majority of the votes cast, save where otherwise provided in these rules.

2. The valid forms of vote shall be 'for', 'against' and 'abstention'. In calculating the majority, only the votes cast for and against shall be taken into account. In the event of a tied vote, the text or proposal shall be deemed rejected.

3. A fresh vote may be called for by the President or requested by at least 10 members if the result of the count is queried.

4. Votes relating to persons shall be by secret ballot.

Rule 23Tabling of amendments

1. Only members and duly mandated alternates may table amendments to documents requiring a decision. These amendments must be in writing.
2. Except as provided for in the first sentence of Rule 26(1), amendments to documents requiring a decision must be submitted by at least six members and must bear their names.
3. They must reach the Secretary-General not later than the seventh working day before the opening of the plenary session and shall be electronically retrievable as soon as they have been translated, but not later than two working days prior to the plenary session. The deadline for the submission of amendments can be reduced to three working days by the President in cases where Rule 15(4) is applied. The deadline shall also not apply in the case of amendments to urgent matters pursuant to the second sentence of Rule 15(6).
4. All amendments shall be distributed to members before the beginning of the plenary session.

Rule 24Procedure for dealing with amendments

1. If more than twenty amendments are submitted to a document requiring a decision, the Bureau or the plenary assembly may refer the document back to the commission for further consideration. This shall not apply in the case of documents requiring a decision whose adoption cannot be deferred.
2. An amendment tabled in due and proper form which is not supported at the meeting by its authors or by another member shall not be considered.
3. If one or more amendments have been tabled to a part of a text, the President, the rapporteur or the authors of these amendments may propose compromise amendments during the debate. A compromise amendment can only be proposed with the consent of the movers of the original amendment. A compromise amendment shall be given priority when voting takes place and, if adopted, shall invalidate any amendment on which the compromise is based.
4. Voting on amendments shall follow the order of the points in the text. The President may order a joint vote on amendments with a similar content and objective.
5. Amendments shall have priority over the text to which they relate and shall be put to the vote before that text.
6. If two or more mutually exclusive amendments have been tabled to the same part of a text, the amendment that departs furthest from the original text shall have priority and shall be put to the vote first.
7. The final vote shall be on the text as a whole, whether amended or not.

Rule 25Urgent opinions

In urgent cases where a deadline set by the Council, Commission or European Parliament cannot be met under the normal procedure, and the relevant commission has adopted its draft opinion unanimously, the President shall transmit this draft opinion to the Council, Commission and European Parliament for information. The draft opinion shall be submitted to the following plenary session for adoption without amendment. All documents relating to the said opinion must testify to the urgent nature of the opinion.

Rule 26Simplified procedures

1. Draft opinions adopted unanimously by a (lead) commission in the presence of a majority of its members shall be adopted by the plenary Assembly without debate unless at least 32 members table an amendment in accordance with the first sentence of Rule 23(3). In this case, the draft opinion shall be dealt with by the plenary Assembly. The commission's draft opinion shall be forwarded to members, with a reference to this procedure, together with the draft agenda.

2. If the (lead) commission is of the view that the Committee has no reason to comment on or propose changes to a document referred to it by the Bureau, it may propose that no objections be raised to the document. The proposal shall be submitted to the plenary Assembly for adoption without debate.

Rule 27

Closing of the plenary session

Before the closing of the plenary session, the President shall announce the time and place of the following plenary session together with any items already on the agenda.

Chapter 3

The Bureau and the President

Rule 28

Composition of the Bureau

The Bureau shall consist of:

- a) the President;
- b) the first Vice-President;
- c) other Vice-Presidents;
- d) other members;
- e) the chairmen of the political groups.

One member per country shall have the rank of Vice-President. Seats on the Bureau (excluding the seats of the President and the chairmen of the political groups) shall be divided among the national delegations as follows:

— three seats: Germany, Spain, France, Italy, United Kingdom,

— two seats: Belgium, Denmark, Greece, Ireland, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Austria, Portugal, Finland, Sweden.

Rule 29

Replacements at Bureau meetings

1. For each member of the Bureau, apart from the President, a member or alternate from the same national delegation shall be named at the same time as an ad personam replacement. This replacement shall not be entitled to participate, speak and vote unless he is replacing the Bureau member in question. The delegation of vote must be notified in writing to the Secretary-General prior to the relevant meeting.

2. For each political group chairman, the political group in question shall name a replacement from among its members to whom the second and third sentences of paragraph 1 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Rule 30Election rules

1. The Bureau shall be elected by the plenary assembly for two years.
2. The elections of the President, the first Vice-President, the 14 Vice-Presidents, the other members of the Bureau and the chairmen of the political groups as members of the Bureau shall be held under the chairmanship of the interim president in accordance with Rules 11 and 12. All candidatures must be submitted in writing to the Secretary-General at least one hour before the beginning of the plenary session. The elections shall take place only if at least two thirds of the members are present.

Rule 31Election of the President and the first Vice-President

1. Before the elections, candidates for the posts of President and first Vice-President may make a short statement before the plenary assembly. The speaking time for candidates shall be of equal length and shall be laid down by the interim president.
2. The election of the President and the first Vice-President shall take place separately. They shall be elected by a majority of more than 50 % of the votes cast.
3. The valid forms of vote shall be a vote for and an abstention. In calculating the majority required, only the votes cast for shall be taken into account.
4. If no candidate obtains the required majority in the first ballot, a second ballot shall be held in which the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed to be elected. In the event of a tied vote, a decision shall be taken by drawing lots.

Rule 32Election of the 14 Vice-Presidents, the other Bureau members and the chairmen of the political groups as members of the Bureau

1. For the election of the 14 Vice-Presidents and the other 20 Bureau members, a joint list may be drawn up for the candidates from those national delegations which nominate only one candidate for each of the seats allocated to them on the Bureau. This list may be adopted in a single ballot if it obtains a majority of more than 50 % of the votes cast.
2. In cases where a joint list of candidates is not adopted, or where the number of candidates exceeds the number of seats allocated to a national delegation on the Bureau, each of these seats shall be decided upon in separate ballots; in this case the provisions on the election of the President and the first Vice-President shall be applicable in accordance with Rules 30 and 31(2) to (4).
3. For the election of the chairmen of the political groups as members of the Bureau, the interim president shall present the plenary assembly with a list of their names for adoption, which is to be voted on as a whole.

Rule 33Election of replacements

When a candidate for a seat on the Bureau is elected, his replacement shall also be elected automatically.

Rule 34Vacant Bureau seats

In the event of termination of Committee membership or of resignation from the Bureau, a member of the Bureau and/or his replacement shall be replaced for the remainder of his term of office in accordance with the procedures laid down in Rules 28 to 33.

Rule 35

Tasks of the Bureau

The Bureau shall have the following tasks:

- a) establishment of the policy programme at the beginning of each term, monitoring of its implementation and presentation of the annual and end-of-term assessments;
- b) preparation, organisation and coordination of the work of the plenary assembly and the commissions.

To this end the Bureau may:

- set up working groups of Bureau members or of Committee members to advise it in specific areas,
- invite other members of the Committee, by virtue of their expertise or mandate, and persons not belonging to the Committee, to attend its meetings;
- c) overall responsibility for financial, organisational and administrative matters concerning members and alternates; internal organisation of the Committee, its Secretariat-General, including the establishment plan, and its constituent bodies;
- d) engagement of the Secretary-General and the officials and other servants listed in Rule 62(1) and (2);
- e) submission of the draft estimates of expenditure and revenue to the plenary assembly in accordance with Rule 63;
- f) authorisation of meetings away from the usual place of work;
- g) laying down of the implementing arrangements regarding travel and subsistence expenses for members, duly mandated alternates and experts, in compliance with the provisions laid down under the budget procedure.

Rule 36

Convening of the Bureau/Quorum

1. The Bureau shall be convened by the President, who shall set the date of the meeting and the agenda in agreement with the first Vice-President. The Bureau shall meet at least once every three months, or within 14 days following receipt of a written request by at least ten of its members.
2. A quorum shall exist at a Bureau meeting if at least one half of its members are present. The Bureau shall decide by a majority of the votes cast, save where otherwise provided for in these rules. Rule 22(2) shall also apply mutatis mutandis.
3. In preparation for the Bureau decisions, the Secretary-General shall draw up discussion documents and recommendations for a decision on each item to be discussed; these documents and recommendations shall be enclosed with the draft agenda. After an exploratory debate the Bureau shall, where necessary, issue the Secretary-General or a working group with further instructions, clearly specifying the subject to be covered and the time-frame. The working group or Secretary-General shall subsequently submit documents for discussion together with a recommendation for a decision. Amendments to recommendations for decisions must be submitted in writing to the Secretary-General not later than the third working day before the opening of the Bureau meeting and shall be electronically retrievable as soon as they have been translated.

Rule 37

The President

1. The President shall direct the work of the Committee.
2. The President shall be the Committee's representative. He may delegate these powers.
3. If the President is absent or unable to attend, he shall be represented by the first Vice-President; if the first Vice-President is absent or unable to attend, the President shall be represented by one of the other Vice-Presidents.

Opinions and resolutions — procedure in Bureau

Rule 38

Opinions — Legal bases

The Committee shall adopt its opinions pursuant to Article 265 of the EC Treaty:

- a) on the basis of a referral from the Commission or the Council in the cases provided for in the EC Treaty or on the basis of a referral from these institutions or the European Parliament in all other cases;
- b) on its own initiative;
- c) when, in the event of the Economic and Social Committee being consulted under Article 262 of the EC Treaty, it considers that specific regional interests are involved.

Rule 39

Opinions — Designation of commission

1. The Bureau shall establish the annual work programme of the commissions after consulting them. This programme shall indicate to which commissions the anticipated referrals are to be allocated. After the documents listed in the annual work programme have been received, the Bureau shall give the responsible commission a deadline for submission of its draft opinion.
2. When it receives documents from the Council, Commission or European Parliament which are not contained in the work programme, the Bureau shall designate the responsible commission and give it a deadline for the submission of its draft opinion. In urgent cases the President may designate the responsible commission; when this is the case, the Bureau shall be informed at its next meeting.
3. If the subject of an opinion concerns more than one commission, the Bureau shall designate a lead commission and, where necessary, one or more supplementary commissions. In such a case, the Bureau may either:
 - a) decide to set up a working party comprising representatives of the commissions concerned; or
 - b) in exceptional cases, designate one or more commissions, other than the lead commission, to issue a draft supplementary opinion. The lead commission shall vote on the recommendations made in the draft opinions of the other commissions and integrate the adopted recommendations into its own draft opinion. However, only the lead commission shall report to the plenary assembly.

Rule 40

Appointment of a rapporteur-general

1. If the commission concerned cannot draw up a draft opinion by the deadline set by the Council, Commission or European Parliament, the Bureau may propose that the plenary assembly appoint a rapporteur-general, who shall submit his draft opinion straight to the plenary assembly.

2. When a deadline set by the Council, Commission or European Parliament does not give the plenary assembly time to appoint a rapporteur-general, the rapporteur-general may be appointed by the President; when this is the case, the plenary assembly shall be informed at its next meeting.

3. In both cases, the commission concerned shall meet, where possible, to hold a general exploratory debate on the subject.

Rule 41

Own-initiative opinions

1. Applications for own-initiative opinions may be submitted to the Bureau by three of its members, by a commission via its chairman or by 32 members of the Committee. These applications must be submitted, with reasons, not later than three working days before the opening of the Bureau meeting and, wherever possible, before the annual work programme is adopted.

2. The Bureau shall decide on applications for own-initiative opinions by a majority of its members and shall refer the opinions to the relevant commissions in accordance with Rule 39. The President shall inform the plenary assembly of all Bureau decisions approving and allocating own-initiative opinions.

3. This rule shall apply mutatis mutandis in the case of opinions which come under Rule 38(c).

Rule 42

Tabling of resolutions

1. Resolutions are to be put on the agenda only if they refer to the activities of the European Union, deal with important concerns of regional and local authorities and are of topical interest.

2. Draft resolutions or applications for the drafting of a resolution may be submitted to the Committee by at least 32 members or a political group. All drafts or applications, indicating the names of the members or political group supporting them, shall be submitted to the Bureau in writing. They must reach the Secretary-General not later than three working days before the opening of the Bureau meeting.

3. If the Bureau decides that the Committee is to discuss a draft resolution or an application for the drafting of a resolution, it may:

a) put the draft resolution on the plenary session preliminary draft agenda in accordance with Rule 15(1); or

b) appoint a commission to draw up a draft resolution by a specific deadline under the procedure used for drawing up draft opinions. Rule 51 shall not apply in such cases.

4. In urgent cases the Bureau may, in accordance with the second sentence of Rule 15(6), place a draft resolution on the agenda for the next plenary session. Such draft resolutions shall be dealt with on the second day of the session.

Rule 43

Promotion of opinions and resolutions

The Bureau shall be responsible for promoting the Committee's opinions and resolutions. An impact assessment shall be presented to the plenary assembly by the President annually and at the end of each four-year term.

Chapter 4

Commissions

Rule 44Composition and powers

1. At the beginning of each four-year term, the plenary assembly shall set up commissions to prepare its work. It shall decide on their composition and powers on a proposal from the Bureau.
2. The composition of the commissions shall reflect the national composition of the Committee.
3. Members of the Committee must belong to at least one commission but may not belong to more than two. Exceptions may be made by the Bureau for members belonging to the smaller national delegations.

Rule 45Chairman and vice-chairmen

1. At its first meeting each commission shall appoint from among its members a chairman, a first vice-chairman and no more than two vice-chairmen, who together shall form the commission bureau.
2. Where the number of candidates corresponds to the number of seats to be filled, the election may take place by acclamation. Where this is not the case, or one sixth of the members of the commission so request, the election shall be in accordance with the provisions laid down in Rule 31(2) to (4) for the election of the Committee President and first Vice-President.
3. If a commission bureau member terminates his Committee membership or resigns as a commission bureau member, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of this rule.

Rule 46Tasks of commissions

The commissions shall in particular draw up the draft versions of opinions and resolutions. These drafts shall be submitted to the plenary Assembly for adoption.

Rule 47Convening of commissions and their agendas

1. The dates of meetings and their agendas shall be set by the chairman of each commission acting in agreement with the first vice-chairman.
2. A commission shall be convened by its chairman. The convening notice for an ordinary meeting together with the agenda must reach members not later than four weeks before the date of the meeting.
3. At the written request of at least one quarter of its members, the chairman shall be obliged to convene an extraordinary commission meeting, which must be held not later than four weeks after the submission of the request. The agenda for an extraordinary meeting shall be set by the members submitting the request for such a meeting. It shall be forwarded to members together with the convening notice.
4. All draft opinions and other discussion documents to be translated and distributed before a meeting shall be sent to the secretariat of the commission in question not later than five weeks before the date set for the meeting. They shall then be forwarded to members not later than two weeks before the date of the meeting. In exceptional cases the above time limits may be amended by the chairman.

Rule 48Admission of the public

1. The proceedings of the commissions shall be open to the public, unless a commission decides otherwise in respect of the whole meeting or of a specific item on the agenda.

2. Representatives of the European Parliament, Council and Commission may attend the deliberations of the commissions and reply to questions from members.

Rule 49

Public hearings

In specific cases and with the agreement of the Bureau, a commission may hold a public hearing or invite outside speakers by virtue of their expertise with regard to one or more items on the agenda.

Rule 50

Time limits for drawing up opinions

1. The commissions shall present their draft opinions within the time limit set by the Bureau. The production of a draft opinion shall require no more than two meetings, not including the first meeting at which the work shall be organised.

2. In exceptional cases the Bureau may authorise further meetings to discuss a draft opinion, or may extend the time limit for the presentation of the draft.

Rule 51

Layout of opinions

1. A Committee opinion shall consist of:

— a preamble setting out the legal basis of the opinion and the procedure followed in its preparation, and, if necessary, containing introductory comments, and

— a main part giving the views and recommendations of the Committee on the question under consideration.

2. A separate explanatory statement shall be drawn up for each opinion explaining the views of the Committee as a whole and individual points. The explanatory statement shall be the responsibility of the rapporteur and shall not be put to the vote. It must, however, accord with the text of the opinion that was put to the vote. If it fails to do so, the chairman of the commission may delete the explanatory statement.

Rule 52

Rapporteurs

1. Each commission, acting on a proposal from its chairman, shall appoint a rapporteur or, in duly motivated cases, two rapporteurs to draw up a draft opinion. In urgent cases the chairman may, after informing the Secretary-General, apply a written procedure to appoint a rapporteur.

2. Under this procedure the chairman shall write to the members of the commission, asking them to submit any objections to the appointment of the proposed rapporteur in writing within three working days. In such cases the chairman and first vice-chairman shall decide by mutual agreement.

Rule 53

Working parties

1. In duly motivated cases the commissions may set up working parties, with the approval of the Bureau. Working party members may also come from other commissions.

2. Each working party can appoint a chairman and a vice-chairman from among its members.

Rule 54
Experts

1. The members of the commissions may call on the services of an expert.
2. A commission may appoint experts to assist it in its work and to assist any working parties which it has set up. At the invitation of the chairman, these experts may take part in meetings of the commission or of one of its working parties. The floor may also be given to these experts and to the experts working for and accompanying rapporteurs.
3. Only rapporteurs' experts and experts invited by the commission shall be entitled to travel and subsistence expenses.

Rule 55
Quorum

1. A quorum shall exist at a commission meeting if more than one half of its members are present.
2. The quorum shall be verified only during the meeting and only if at least six members so request. If the verification of a quorum is not requested, all votes shall be valid regardless of the number of voters. If it is established that there is no quorum, the commission may continue its discussions but voting shall take place at the next meeting.
3. All members and alternates taking part in the meeting and other persons present shall sign an attendance list.

Rule 56
Voting

Decisions shall be taken by a majority of the votes cast. Rule 22(2) shall also apply mutatis mutandis.

Rule 57
Amendments

1. Amendments must be sent to commission secretariats not later than the fifth working day before the date of the meeting. In exceptional cases the above time limit may be amended by the chairman.
2. Voting on amendments shall follow the order of the points in the draft opinion under discussion. Thereafter the whole text shall be voted on. If two or more mutually exclusive amendments have been tabled to the same part of a text, the amendment that departs furthest from the original text shall have priority and shall be put to the vote first.
3. Once a draft opinion has been adopted by a commission, it shall be forwarded by the commission chairman to the President of the Committee.

Rule 58
Decision not to draw up an opinion

Where the (lead) commission considers that a document referred to it by the Bureau has no regional or local interest, or is not of political importance, it may decide not to draw up an opinion.

Chapter 5
Administration of the Committee

Rule 59
Secretariat-General

1. The Committee shall be assisted by a Secretariat-General.
2. The Secretariat-General shall be headed by a Secretary-General.
3. The Bureau, acting on a proposal from the Secretary-General, shall organise the Secretariat-General in such a way that it can ensure the efficient functioning of the Committee and its constituent bodies and help the members of the Committee in the performance of their duties. The services to be provided by the Secretariat-General for members, national delegations, political groups and non-attached members shall be determined in the process.
4. The Secretariat-General shall draw up the minutes of the meetings of the Committee's constituent bodies.

Rule 60
Secretary-General

1. The Secretary-General shall be responsible for giving effect to the decisions taken by the Bureau or the President pursuant to these Rules of Procedure and the applicable legal provisions. The Secretary-General shall attend the meetings of the Bureau in an advisory capacity and shall keep the minutes of those meetings.
2. The Secretary-General shall discharge his duties under the direction of the President, representing the Bureau.

Rule 61
Engagement of Secretary-General

1. The Bureau shall engage the Secretary-General on the basis of a decision adopted by a two-thirds majority of its members, pursuant to the provisions of Articles 2 and 8 of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities.
2. The Secretary-General shall be engaged for five years. The detailed provisions of his contract of employment shall be laid down by the Bureau.
3. The powers which the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities confer on the authority responsible for concluding contracts shall be exercised, in the case of the Secretary-General, by the Bureau.

Rule 62
Staff Regulations of officials and Conditions of employment of other servants

1. The powers which the Staff Regulations of officials of the European Communities confer on the appointing authority shall be exercised as follows:
 - for officials in grades 6 to 8 of category A and of the language service and for officials in categories B, C and D, by the Secretary-General,
 - for other officials, by the Bureau, acting on a proposal from the Secretary-General.
2. The powers which the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities confer on the authority competent to conclude contracts of employment shall be exercised as follows:
 - for temporary staff in grades 6 to 8 of category A and of the language service and for temporary staff in categories B, C and D, by the Secretary-General,

- for other temporary staff, by the Bureau, acting on a proposal from the Secretary-General,
- for temporary staff in the private office of the President:

 - temporary staff in grades 6 to 8 of category A and for temporary staff in grades B, C and D, by the Secretary-General, acting on a proposal from the President,

- for other temporary staff, by the Bureau, acting on a proposal from the President.

Temporary staff employed in the private office of the President shall be engaged until the end of the President's term of office,

- for auxiliary and local staff, by the Secretary-General,
- for special advisers, by the Secretary-General in accordance with the conditions set out in Article 82 of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities.

Rule 63

Budget

1. The Secretary-General shall submit the preliminary draft estimates of the Committee's expenditure and revenue for the following financial year to the Bureau. The Bureau shall submit the draft to the plenary assembly for adoption.
2. The plenary assembly shall adopt the draft estimates of the Committee's expenditure and revenue and forward them to the Commission, Council and European Parliament in good time to ensure that the deadlines laid down in the financial provisions are met.
3. The Committee's budget shall be implemented in accordance with the Financial Regulation applicable to the general budget of the European Communities. The President shall be the highest authority empowered to implement the budget in accordance with Articles 28, 29, 39, 48 and 52 of the Financial Regulation of the European Communities. He shall act on a proposal from the Secretary-General.

Title III

General provisions

Chapter 1

Cooperation with other EU bodies

Rule 64

Cooperation agreements with other EU bodies

The Bureau, acting on a proposal from the Secretary-General, may conclude cooperation agreements with institutions and other bodies of the European Union within the framework of interinstitutional cooperation.

Rule 65

Forwarding and publication of opinions and resolutions

1. The Committee's opinions, as well as any communication relating to the use of a simplified procedure under Rule 26 or a decision not to draw up an opinion under Rule 58, shall be addressed to the Council, Commission and European Parliament. As in the case of resolutions, they shall be forwarded by the President.

2. The opinions and resolutions of the Committee shall be published in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

Chapter 2

Rules of Procedure

Rule 66

Revision of Rules of Procedure

1. The plenary assembly shall decide by a majority of its members if there is a need to amend these Rules of Procedure, either in part or in full.

2. It shall appoint an ad hoc commission to draw up a report and a draft text as a basis for the adoption of new rules by a majority of its members. The new rules shall enter into force the day after their publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

Rule 67

Bureau instructions

The Bureau may give instructions determining the procedure for implementing the provisions of these Rules of Procedure, in compliance with the latter.

Rule 68

Entry into force of Rules of Procedure

These Rules of Procedure shall enter into force the day after their publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

Done at Brussels, 18 November 1999.

By the Committee of the Regions
The President
Manfred DAMMEYER