

'A Socialist in search of United Europe' from the Daily Mail (13 May 1948)

Caption: On 13 May 1948, in an article in the British daily newspaper Daily Mail, the Labour MP, Christopher Shawcross, member of the British delegation to the Congress of Europe in The Hague, explains why the Labour and Socialist Parties should have supported the Hague Congress. He also argues in favour of the establishment of a European Assembly and calls on Clement Attlee's Labour Government to endorse such an Assembly.
