needed to pay for such imports.

Article 6

Article 7

The Contracting Parties undertake to allow relief from duties, taxes and other charges and to grant licences in respect of goods temporarily remaining in their territories for re-exportation either in the unaltered state or after inward processing.

Article 8

The Community undertakes to eliminate, within one year of the entry into force of the Agreement, specific quantitative restrictions on imports of the products listed in Annex I into the regions of the Community indicated in that Annex.

For the purposes of this Agreement, 'specific quantitative restrictions' shall mean those quantitative restrictions applied by the Community to imports originating in Bulgaria under Regulation (EEC) No 3420/83 which concerns products other than those to which quantitative restrictions are applied under Regulation (EEC) No 288/82.

Article 12

Imports into the Community of products covered by this Agreement shall not be charged against the quotas referred to in Article 11 where they are declared as being intended for re-export and are actually re-exported from the Community either in the unaltered state or after inward processing under the administrative control arrangements in force in the Community.

Article 13

The Contracting Parties shall examine before 30 June 1992 in the framework of the Joint Committee referred to in Article 23 whether it can be agreed to make changes with regard to the specific quantitative restrictions still maintained at that time. Changes to be considered may include:

- liberalization,
- liberalization with surveillance of imports,
- adoption of appropriate measures by Bulgaria such as the issue of export licences or certificates to ensure that exports remain within specified levels.
- measures that may be required to adapt existing Community import arrangements.

Article 14

2. The Joint Committee set up pursuant to Article 23 shall during its meeting in 1995 draw up the arrangements which shall apply for a prescribed period after 31 December 1995 to the imports of the sensitive products referred to in paragraph 1.

2. The Contracting Party claiming serious injury or threat thereof shall request consultations by notification in writing and shall provide the other Party with all the relevant information required for a detailed examination of the situation.
3. The consultations requested pursuant to paragraph 1 shall be held with a view to seeking mutually satisfactory solutions and with due regard for the fundamental aims of the Agreement and shall be completed not later than 30 days from the date of notification of the request by the Party concerned, unless the Parties agree otherwise.
4. If, as a result of such consultation, it is agreed that the situation referred to in paragraph 1 exists, exports shall be limited or such other action shall be taken as will prevent or remedy the injury.
5. If, following action under paragraphs 1 to 4 above, agreement is not reached between the Contracting Parties, the Contracting Party which requested the consultation shall be free to restrict the imports of the products concerned to the extent and for such time as is necessary to prevent or remedy the injury. The other Contracting Party shall then be free to deviate from its obligations towards the first Party in respect of substantially equivalent trade.
6. In critical circumstances, where delay would cause damage difficult to repair, such preventive or remedial actions may be taken provisionally without prior consultation, on the condition that the consultation shall be effected immediately after taking such action.
7. In the selection of measures under this Article, the Contracting Parties should give priority to those which cause the least disturbance to the functioning of this Agreement.
8. Where necessary the Contracting Parties may hold consultations to determine when the measures pursuant to paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 shall cease to apply.

Such prohibitions and restrictions must not, however, constitute a means of arbitrary discrimination or disguised restrictions on trade between the Contracting Parties.

2. This Agreement shall not preclude the taking of action justified on grounds of protection of essential security interests:

- (a) relating to fissionable materials or the materials from which they are derived;
- (b) relating to the traffic in arms, ammunition and implements of war and to such traffic in other goods and materials as is carried on directly or indirectly for the purpose of supplying a military establishment;

Article 19

1. The Contracting Parties shall make every effort to promote, expand and diversify their trade on the basis of non-discrimination and reciprocity. 2. 5. The Contracting Parties agree that counter-trade practices may create distortions in international trade and they should be regarded as temporary and exceptional.

For this reason they agree not to impose counter-trade requirements on companies established in Bulgaria or in the Community nor to compel them to engage in such trade practices.

Nevertheless, where firms or companies decide to resort to counter-trade operations, the Contracting Parties will encourage them to furnish all relevant information to facilitate the transaction.

Article 20

Within the limits of their respective powers, the Contracting Parties:

- shall encourage the adoption of arbitration for the settlement of disputes arising out of commercial and cooperation transactions concluded by companies or firms, enterprises and economic organizations of the Community and those of Bulgaria,
