The Centre Virtuel de la Connaissance sur l'Europe (CVCE) is pleased to publish the second edition of the EU Constitutional Law online course.

The course was developed by Professor Herwig Hofmann of the University of Luxembourg in cooperation with the CVCE. It focuses on the constitutional and institutional dimensions of European Union law and comprises the following elements:

- A slide presentation covering each topic;
- A wide variety of multimedia material, in particular treaties, court cases, historical documents, photographs and audio or video clips, as well as teaching material such as tables and interactive maps and diagrams, some of which have been specifically created for the course.

The course is freely accessible in the ENA digital library and is given in English with the addition of multilingual terminology (in English, French and German). The ancillary material is available both in the original language and in translation.

This online course is the result of close cooperation between Professor Herwig Hofmann and the CVCE team directed by Susana Muñoz and Hervé Bribosia.

The CVCE would sincerely like to thank Professor Hofmann for the contribution he has made to its Research and Teaching section. Herwig Hofmann thanks the CVCE for its considerable input and professionalism in creating this exceptional online resource.
