

NOTE

de: la délégation lituanienne

Objet: CIG 2003

- Réponse de la Lituanie au questionnaire sur la fonction législative, les formations du Conseil et la présidence du Conseil des ministres (doc. CIG 9/03)
-

Les délégations trouveront en annexe la réponse de la délégation lituanienne au questionnaire sur la fonction législative, les formations du Conseil et la présidence du Conseil des ministres (voir doc. CIG 9/03).

I. THE LEGISLATIVE FUNCTION

1. Should exercise of the legislative function be conferred on a single Council formation or should a legislative function (public) and a part dedicated to other activities be determined for each Council formation? YES
2. Should the public legislative part be concerned only with laws and framework laws adopted under the normal legislative procedure (i.e. joint adoption by the European Parliament and the Council) YES
or
with all laws and framework laws?

II. THE FORMATIONS OF THE COUNCIL

3. Should the European Council's decision on the list of Council formations – as envisaged by the Convention – be taken unanimously as stipulated in the draft Convention? by a qualified majority? or by a simple majority? Should the list be confined to a small number of formations in line with the decision taken in Seville?

UNANIMOUSLY; YES SEVILLE

III. THE PRESIDENCY OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

4. Should other Council formations apart from the Foreign Affairs Council have a fixed Presidency (i.e. not applying the rotation system provided for in Article 23(4))?
which formations?
of what duration?
using what procedure (election by the members of the Council formation concerned)?
NO
5. Should there be a Team Presidency system for the Council formations that continue to use the rotation system?
YES

6. If it is decided to opt for a Team Presidency system
- (a) how many Member States should there be in the "team"? three? four? five? FIVE
 - (b) what should be the duration of its term? a year? 18 months? longer? 2,5 YEARS
 - (c) should the composition of the teams be fixed in advance or left open on the basis of criteria to be determined, with due regard for the principle of equal rotation (which would take into account political and geographical balance and the diversity of Member States as defined in Article 23(4) of the draft Convention)? FIXED IN ADVANCE
 - (d) should the allocation of the different Council formations within the team be fixed in advance or left to the discretion of the Member States in the team? FIXED IN ADVANCE
7. Given the need for increased coordination under a Team Presidency system, should a "chain of command" be maintained, at least partially, with the Member State chairing the General Affairs Council also chairing Coreper [I and II]? YES
8. Should committees/ working parties subordinate to a particular Council automatically be chaired by the Member State holding the Presidency of the Council in question (vertical structure)? YES
9. By the same token, if the Foreign Affairs Minister chaired the Foreign Affairs Council, should the PSC and other external relations working parties be chaired by a representative of the Foreign Affairs Minister? NO
10. In order to achieve greater coherence in the Council's proceedings, should there be an informal structure for coordination between the representatives of the Member States holding the Presidency, in which the President of the European Council, the President of the Commission and the Minister for Foreign Affairs could participate? NO
11. Should the detailed arrangements for the rotation of the Presidency of the Council be the subject of a decision to be taken unanimously * by the European Council? If so:
- should it be adopted at the same time as the Treaty establishing the Constitution? YES
 - could it be adopted later if the essential elements of the future arrangements were agreed at the same time as the Treaty establishing the Constitution?

* At present, the list setting out the order in which Member States assume the Presidency is adopted by the Council unanimously.