2010–2014 European integration in a time of global challenges

The period 2010–2014 was a highly eventful one, with the implementation of the new constitutional framework established by the Treaty of Lisbon, the European elections, the affirmation of the European Council's role as a crisis-management institution, the formation of the new European Commission, the sovereign debt crisis, the Arab Spring, the Ukraine crisis, the conflict in Syria, the migrant crisis, etc. With each successive event, the European Union's capacity for adaptation and action was put to the test. The dynamism and the very nature of the integration process within the EU were called into question.

The ePublication '2010–2014. European integration in a time of global challenges' analyses the process of adaptation and transformation of the EU in the light of these events.

The ePublication will be available soon.
